

Name _____

Hour _____

Reading /Congress / The Rise of the Washington Establishment

- 1) Most humans seek to achieve ?
- 2a) Primary goal of a typical congressman?
- b) Why is this goal necessary?
- 3) Goal of the typical bureaucrat?
- 4a) What do we as voters (who support the Washington system) strive for?
- b) What is another name for this exchange?
- 5) Congressmen engage in what three kinds of activities?
- 6) What is the most critical consideration of congressmen?
- 7) Politicians have propounded an ideology that maintains

- 8) Describe what "bring home the bacon" means.
- 9) What is pork barrel legislation?
- 10) What type of legislation passes through congress quickly?
- 11) The bureaucracy needs what to survive?

- 12) If a congressmen takes a policy stand, it will generally result in making some _____.
- 13a) Which two congressional activities are less controversial and why?
- b) Which is the least controversial of the two above?
- 14) What is the most effective mode of communication according to practicing politician?
- 15) _____ + _____ =
pure-profit
- 16) What gets larger as the government attempts to do more for people?
- 17) Why do most congressmen meet the demands of their constituents?
- 18) What questions can a congressman ask to stimulate demand?
- 19) Explain why congressmen are characterized as the Alpha and the Omega?
- 20) Explain how congress creates big government.